WARM SPRINGS, Ga., March 31.—In his best dramatic fashion, President Roosevelt today smashed at charges he was attempting a dictatorship through enactment of the government reorganization bill, and called for passage of the measure in its present form.

He made public a letter, to an unnamed friend, at 12:45 (EST) this morning accusing his opposition of seeking to create a false political issue, and enunciating "three simple reasons" why there is no chance of dictatorship under him. Those reasons are:

Reasons Given.
"I have no inclination to be a dictator."

"I have none of the qualifications that would make me a successful dictator."

"I have too much historical background and too much knowledge of existing dictatorships to make me desire any form of dictatorship for a democracy like the United States of America."

It was nearly midnight when Secretary Marvin H. McIntyre called press cottages here at Warm Springs and warned them to stand by for a surprise announcement.

It was nearly 1 this morning when Mr. Roosevelt's bold thrust was made at "a carefully manufactured partisan and political opposition to any re-organization" was rushed down the red clay road from the "little White House."

"The opposition has planted bogies under every bed," Mr. Roosevelt charged.

Takes Issue.
The chief executive took issue with those who would amend the re-organization bill so that all power be vested in congress. He pointed out "two cogent reasons" why the measure should be passed in its present form, wherein all changes in administrative set-up by the president become final subject only to disapproval in 60 days by joint resolution of congress.

"The first is the constitutional question involved in the passage of a concurrent resolution, which is only an expression of congressional sentiment," declared the president. "Such a resolution cannot repeal executive action taken in pursuance of a law."

The second is the very fact that the bill is the very

Search For Bombing Plane Near Honolulu

(BULLETIN)
International News Service

HONOLULU, T. H., March 31.—Spreading out like a gigantic fan, ships and planes of the United States fleet today sought another navy bomber, missing since yesterday afternoon with six men aboard.

Plane and crew are feared lost in the Pacific, which, if tragically true, would bring the death toll of the fleet's war games to 11 in the past 24 hours.

HONOLULU, March 31.—A giant search was underway here today for a navy bombing patrol plane, presumably carrying seven men, reported missing shortly after a plane of the same type crashed into the sea during the war games of the United States fleet.

The plane has been missing since Wednesday afternoon navy authorities at Pearl harbor base reported, and was one of the group of patrol planes taking part in the games as a defensive scouting plane.

Sixty-five ships and 240 planes were engaged in the hunt. Naval headquarters announced the missing craft is the 18-P-7 manned by a crew of six.

These aboard were Lieut. C. E. Signer, aviation cadet Raroborn, aviation machinist mate P. B. Pancoast, aviation machinist mate J. A. Bingham, radio operator G. T. Williamson and radio operator C. R. Oulundson. The homes of the men were not announced.

Admiral Claude C. Bloch, commander-in-chief of the fleet, called a temporary halt in the maneuvers of the fleet which has been attempting to "destroy" the island of Oahu.

Y Workers Pass Goal Of Drive Last Night

Reporting a grand total of 827 memberships subscribed and $1,339.75 in cash collected, the 26 hard-working membership drive teams of the Young Men's Christian Association topped their goal of 800 members and $1,000 cash by a substantial margin at their report rally in the "Y" banquet hall last night.

Bedlam broke loose when General Secretary Robert L. Meermans, flanked by his smiling campaign leaders, read out the final totals.

Victory Comes Early
First of many victories had been won on the second night of the city-wide campaign, the night the workers usually turn in their first solicitation reports. This year leaders chose to hear reports at the opening dinner Tuesday night, and were surprised when totals shot out a long way toward the 800-members and $1,000 mark.

Presiding at the dinner session last night was J. Preston Flaherty, head of one of the divisions who was superintendent of the Charac.

WASHINGTON, March 31.—With the path cleared for an investigation of the Tennessee Valley Authority, snafus in political maneuvering, buried for a week by unanimous demand in congress for the probe, cleared into the open today.

From House Minority Leader Snell came the flat charge that the administration had blocked all attempts by congress to order an early report from the investigators for fear of repercussions at the polls should it be filed before the November elections.

Bitterly resenting indications by administration leaders that the bill should be filed before the November elections.

PARIS, March 31.—Chancellor Hitler and Premier Mussolini are swiftly dividing between them the latest morsels of territory and of spheres of influence not actually within the frontiers of France and England.

And today Il Duce has once more terrified the cowering democracies by his warning that he would make war hard, fast and first on anybody who tries to interfere with his victory in Spain.

Sense Of Speech
That is the sense of Mussolini's extraordinary speech in which he declared he can and will throw 9,000,000 soldiers, one of the best air fleets in the world and a navy which though small, is good against any enemy of Italy daring to obstruct her manifest destiny.

France is the number one addressee for these remarks, which come at a moment when the French government, confused by internal strife, is ill prepared to reply.

England is the second party intended to listen well and carefully to Mussolini's own appraisal of his military strength, while he and the British continue their negotiations for what Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain hopes will result in a general Anglo-British agreement.

At a delightful affair held in the basement of the St. Vitus church, South Jefferson and Mainland streets, Wednesday evening, a group of friends and laymen of this city and surrounding communities "said farewell" to the Rev. Fr. S. P. Anuskiewicz, assistant pastor of St. Vitus church for nearly two years, who leaves today to assume his new duties as assistant pastor of the Sacred Heart church, Bradock, Pa.

The occasion was an appropriate climax to the brief career of the Rev. Fr. Anuskiewicz here. A light refreshment opened the event after which Angelo J. PRIVATE POLL WILL BE TAKEN

"Storm Warning" For Administration's Reorganization Bill Flown By House Leaders

(International News Service)
WASHINGTON, March 31.—A storm warning for the administration's reorganization bill was flown today by the leadership in the house when a private poll was ordered to determine the extent of opposition to the measure among Democrats.

The poll, which will be made by the house "whip" organization, also will enable the leaders to strengthen any weakness discovered in party lines.

Only in the most important house fights are such polls taken. It is a considerable task when more than 300 Democrats must be questioned on all phases of the legislation.

The fight on the bill was opened with a report of the minority members of the house reorganization committee, in charge of the measure, which held the liberties of the American people were threatened.

The minority also contended the bill would loosen the hold of congress on the federal purse strings.

Members declared that the process depending upon Congress are the greatest in volume since the historic supreme court enlargement fight last year.

The minority report of the house reorganization committee, signed by Reps. Taber (R) of New York and Gifford (R) of Massachusetts, declared:

"The liberties of the American people and of the English-speaking people have been dependent upon the power of Congress over appropriations."

SOCIETY

FIRST M. E. GUILD PROGRAM AND TEA

Members of the First M. E. Guild met with their guests for a social gathering at the church on Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock where they were entertained in a most interesting manner.

The program was in the form of a "Cooking School" with a splendid demonstration being carried out showing steps in roasting, broiling, baking and cake making in preparing a well balanced and appetizing meal.

At the close, a special gift of a handsome table lamp was awarded to Mrs. Venner Bright, while the Guild treasury received a gift of money. Tea and cake was served to the group by Mrs. Lucy Marquis and her aides.

Following the demonstration, a short business period was called to order by Mrs. Grace Crawford in charge. Mrs. Venner Bright led the devotional hour.

Mrs. W. L. Beal was named chairman to take charge of the next Guild meeting, scheduled April 27.

HERSHEYS COMPLETE HOSPITAL SEWING

Members of the Hershey Auxiliary of the First M. E. church completed their monthly meeting of sewing at the Jameson Memorial hospital when they met in the parlors of the institution on Wednesday morning. A good attendance marked yesterday's event, and during the hours of 9 until 12 o'clock much was accomplished.

This period calls for a short recess and on April 13 sessions of the same nature will be resumed at the hospital, with the National Council of Jewish Women presiding as the hostess group.

Mrs. W. L. Cosel is president of this organization, and they have already launched plans for getting large groups of women to turn out on their sewing dates and aid with this worthy work.

MARTHA SHRINE, NO. 14 OFFICERS ENTERTAINED

A prominent tea room was the mecca for Martha Shrine No. 14, officers when their worthy high priestess, Miss Ella Bailey, and watchman of shepherds, Mrs. Lona Gray, entertained jointly at a lovely informal party.

The event was opened with a banquet served at 6:30 o'clock to guests numbering twenty-five at a beautifully appointed table. Minute hand-made Easter baskets in pastel colors, marked each place, which were taken home as favors. The time that ensued was spent in playing bridge, 500 and bingo, all tallying in accordance with the Easter motif. Those winning prizes for the various contests included Mrs. Ruth Titus, Mrs. Eva Cowles and Mrs. Flora Moretti.

Miss Bailey and Mrs. Gray will retire from their respective offices in the Martha Shrine on Thursday evening, April 7, at ceremonies which will be conducted in the lodge room of the Scottish Rite Cathedral, each having completed their term.

1934 JOLLY QUILTERS ARE DINNER GUESTS

Members of the 1934 Jolly Quilters club met for an all day session Wednesday in the home of Mrs. William Anderson, Monroe street. A dinner was served at noon, after which the time was spent in quilting. A short business period was conducted by the president, Mrs. George Solomon.

A special meeting will take place on Tuesday, April 5, in the home of Mrs. Anderson. Details for the next regular meeting will be announced later.

V. F. W. AUXILIARY ENTERTAINS FRIENDS

Ladies of the Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars entertained their friends at a card and bingo party in the Legion Home Wednesday evening. A large number participated in the festivities. Prizes for the 500 contests were awarded to Mrs. M. Smith, Mrs. Helen Dunlap, S. Miller and Homer Gordon. For bingo, they were awarded to Mrs. Mary Ashton, Mrs. Rebecca Strong, Ralph Audino and William Reed.

A delicious lunch was served at the conclusion of play. General chairlady in charge of this event was Mrs. Irene Cage. Her capable assistants included Mrs. Ada Miller and Mrs. Irene Munson in charge of refreshments; Mrs. Elizabeth Miller and Mrs. Gertrude Speed in charge of bingo; Mrs. Evelyn Woods in charge of the door, and George Christoph in charge of the coffee.

The next regular meeting of the auxiliary will be Thursday, April 7, at the Legion Home. Election of officers will take place at this time.

SUITS-US CLUB HAS INFORMAL GATHERING

Mrs. Mary Hahn of Adams street received the Suits-US club members in her home Wednesday evening for a special time, the usual round of 500 providing the diversion. Mrs. J. B. Daugherty and Mrs. E. B. Ray won the prizes, at the close of the contest.

With the individual tables rearranged, the hostess served a dainty repast. The Easter motif was used effectively throughout, with "bunnies" scampering everywhere.

A change is noted in the date of their next event. It will be held Thursday, April 21, with Mrs. Blanche Lewis of Butz street, hostess.

JEWISH STUDY GROUP TO MEET ON FRIDAY

New Castle Section, National Council of Jewish Women, are having a study group meeting on Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the home of Mrs. H. Kivans, 215 East Leasure avenue. This will be a peace meeting, conducted by the peace committee.

Mrs. Joe Todd Honored

Mrs. Joe Todd, nee Lettie Shriver, a bride of recent date, was honored at a miscellaneous shower on a recent evening by members of the Bell Telephone Exchange, where she was formerly employed. The event took place at the honoree's residence on Edison avenue.

For the contests, which provided the pastimes, prizes were awarded to Mrs. Dorothy Thelma for 500; Mrs. William Davis for bridge, and Suzanne Sadler for bingo.

Mrs. Todd was presented with a number of lovely and useful gifts for her new home. The serving of a tempting repast was a later pleasure, appointments being in keeping with the Easter season. Aides were Mary Moore, Betty Lou Hartland, Dorothy Cain and Alice Bradford.

G. T. E. Club

Mrs. George Price was a pleasing hostess to members of the G. T. E. club in her home on East Washington street Wednesday evening. Mrs. Wayne Sines was a special guest.

Bridge occupied the evening hours and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Sines and Mrs. John Jones. Later, a lunch was served.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. Clyde Lloyd, Acorn street, in two weeks.

H. and H. Club

This evening at 8 o'clock, in the Victor Emanuel hall, Home street, members of the H. and H. club will gather for their regular meeting. The event will close with a social period.

Is This the Reason You Are Constipated?

If you're wondering why your bowels don't work right—stop and think about what you eat. Bread, meat, eggs and potatoes. All good nourishing foods—but all concentrated, lacking in "bulk." And you need "bulk"! Some food that forms a soft, spongy mass in the bowels—helps them move.

It's this lack of "bulk" that's causing your constipation. Kellogg's All-Bran is just what you need. It soaks up water and softens like a sponge. And this soft mass helps your bowels move. In addition, All-Bran gives you Nature's great intestinal tonic, vitamin B. Eat this crisp crunchy cereal every day, drink plenty of water, and enjoy happier days. All-Bran made by Kellogg in Battle Creek. Sold by every grocer.

Industrial Show Will Be Held Here April 21-22-23

The big "industrial exposition" of the Junior Chamber of Commerce will be held in the main and west dining rooms of the Cathedral Thursday, Friday and Saturday, April 21, 22 and 23. Daniel H. Treloar, Jr., exposition general chairman, announced today.

Dates were set and other preliminary arrangements completed when Treloar and his general committee members met last night.

Conan Doyle, Sir William Crookes, in England and Prof. Charles Richet in France.

On Other March 31sts, 1492—All Jews were ordered expelled from Castile and Aragon by the rulers, their Most Christian Majesties, Ferdinand and Isabella. If all HAD been expelled, partly-Jewish Christopher Columbus would not have carried the Spanish flag to the western world. The Spanish monarch's treaty was empty and they turned away the Genoese when he laid his plan before them. A Jew, Luis de Santangel, came forward to advance the money needed for ships and men for Columbus' expedition.

1631—John Donne, classic poet and dean of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, died after he had preached his own funeral sermon while attired in a shroud.

1834—Japan was impressed by the guns of the ships of Commodore Matthew C. Perry, U. S. Navy, upon signing the "open door" treaty that threw open its ports to the world's ships and trade.

1862—Claude Augustus Swanson, Secretary of Navy, was born. Other notable birthdays today: James Pinkney Pope, b. 1884, the other senator from Idaho; William H. Dieterich, b. 1871, senator from Illinois; Henry Windsor, b. 1900, unemployed Englishman on the dole known as "Duke of Gloucester"; James Middleton Cox, b. 1870, one-time Presidential nominee on whose ticket, F. D. R., was defeated for Vice President; Eddie Quilian, b. 1907, photoplay actor.

1896—Patent on the hookless fastener, or zipper, was granted to Whitcomb L. Judson, Pennsylvania. It required nearly a quarter century to popularize it.

Further south, Salamanca said, fighting columns are pursuing retreating government forces and captured Maella and Padilla.

Crossing the river Alga, it was stated, the rebel right flank captured Mount Muset, north of Deroylen, taking a large number of prisoners and seizing the entire general staff of the defending government brigade. Three hundred Loyalists were reported killed in fighting at San Joaquin.

PRESIDENT SAYS HE HAS NO IDEA OF DICTATORSHIP

remote possibility that some legislative situation might possibly arise in the future where the president would feel obligated to veto a joint resolution of the congress and properly require a two-thirds vote to override his veto. I repeat that I visualize no such possibility between now and 1940 when the authority given is to end."

Political Issue.

Smashing into the organized opposition, which he charged with inspiring floods of telegrams on congress, the president first pointed out that his re-organization efforts were in line with proposals of the last seven or eight administrations, and then asserted:

"You know that when over a year ago I recommended a re-organization bill to the congress, all parties and all factions agreed to the need for such a measure. You know, too, that a year later a carefully manufactured partisan and political opposition to any re-organization has created a political issue—created it deliberately out of whole cloth."

"It was said, for example, that the work of the army engineers was to be abolished, in spite of the fact that the congress and the congress alone can determine who will do river and harbor dredging and build flood control levees. It is charged that the splendid work of the forestry service is to be hamstrung—hamstrung I suppose by the best friend forestry ever had in the United States. It is charged that the extremely efficient veterans bureau or the excellent railroad mediation board is to be damaged beyond repair. I cite these merely as examples of a score of equally silly nightmares conjured up at the instigation either of those who would restore the government to those who owned it between 1921 and 1933, or those who for one reason or another seek deliberately to wreck the government of the United States."

Mr. Roosevelt concluded by stating:

"Thus you will see that charges of dictatorship are made out of whole cloth—even if I wanted to be a dictator, which, heaven knows, I don't."

Women will be interested in this book. The czar was very much in love with his wife. His love story is more important to him than the war of the nation—and it is a quite charming love story.

And one does feel a bit sad that his wife and daughters had to go to doom with him and his heir. But such is the path of every revolution.

Former Kaiser Wilhelm has been fortunate in being out of Germany. And Archduke Otto, heir to the non-existent throne of Austria, is lucky to be outside the German clutches.

Tsar Nicholas was dead alive. He never existed even in his own world, which means seems back. It would not have been possible for him to adjust himself to this far newer world—in any country, whatever its political makeup. Both books are worth reading to gauge better this changing world.

9 to 16 are the Vital years for children

Children need special care during these VITAL YEARS of nine to sixteen. They burn up energy so fast... and their bodies are growing so rapidly. They need energy-restoring and muscle-building food. And they need calcium... more calcium than at any other time of life. Because calcium helps to build strong bones and teeth.

Don't depend upon ordinary meals... because they do not supply enough calcium for the growing child.

Every day, give your child pure, fresh milk—the richest single food in bone-building material... the food that also furnishes energy and fuel for active growing bodies.

Give him our Sealtest-approved milk... the pure, wholesome milk that you have known for years... the milk that is produced under the supervision of the Sealtest System of Laboratory Protection. Order from our milkman, ask at your favorite store or telephone us.

New Labor Unit Formed In State

C. I. O. State Council Is Formed; Phillips Named
As President

ORGANIZATION IS ALSO POLITICAL

HARRISBURG, March 31.—A new labor organization, known as the Pennsylvania Council of Industrial Organizations, was formally organized today.

An outgrowth of the schism in the ranks of the American Federation of Labor, Pennsylvania's new labor unit, representing some 500,000 CIO workers, broke with the past to endorse one of its members for governor.

In so doing the CIO placed its official stamp of approval upon the Democratic gubernatorial candidacy of Lieutenant-Governor Thomas Kephart, and embarked upon a course which it hoped would give it political as well as labor representation in the state government.

Phillips Named
Actual setting up of the new labor unit, composed of CIO units expelled from the State Federation of Labor by the A. F. of L. took only one-half hour. In that period a constitution and a slate of officials were adopted.

At the convention the convention elected John A. Phillips, former head of the state federation, as president and Lester Thomas of Wilkes-Barre as secretary-treasurer.

The convention also elected by a unanimous vote an executive board composed of one president representing the various CIO units making up the council, as follows:

For the automobile industry, John Kephart, of Northampton; aluminum industry, James Marks, of Clearfield; rubber industry, Charles Womack, Philadelphia; steel, James Thomas, Pittsburgh; textile, Harry Dever, Reading; aluminum, W. B. Graham, New Kensington; glass, William J. Collins, Butler; radio, electrical and machine workers, Harry Block, Philadelphia; state, municipal and county employees, David Kanes, Philadelphia; miscellaneous units, John W. Edman, Philadelphia and Tom Shane, Pittsburgh.

Phillips will receive $4,800 a year under the new council's constitution, and Thomas $4,200.

Officers Are Elected By Members Of Fifth Grade Class Organization

The officers elected were as follows: president, Frank Stafford; vice president, Edith Masters; secretary, Anna Herman; treasurer, Robert Stafford; publicity committee, Mario DeCorbo, George Isaac and Virginia Kik; banker, Miss Gilliam; messenger boy, Joseph Clemons.

Don't Neglect a Cold
Rub soothing, warming Musterole well into your chest and throat.

Musterole is NOT just a salve. It's a "counter-irritant" containing good old-fashioned cold remedies—oil of mustard, menthol, camphor and other valuable ingredients.

That's why it gets such fine results—better than the old-fashioned mustard plaster. Musterole penetrates, stimulates, warms and soothes, helpful in drawing out lung congestion and pain. Used by millions for 50 years. Recommended by many doctors and nurses. All druggists. In three strengths: Regular Strength, Children's (mild), and Extra Strong.

REFINISHING FURNITURE

Work outdoors—if possible—when you're doing over old furniture. To remove old varnish or paint first apply a thick coat of turpentine. After half an hour wipe off this coat and cover the furniture with a coat of thick soap suds made in water and washing soda and applied with a brush. To save the hands. When this coat dries remove it with a stiff brush and scrape off any left-over varnish with a dull knife. If a commercial varnish remover is used follow the instructions carefully.

New Clue In Levine Kidnap Case Followed

Strange Message In Radio Broadcast Starts Officials On Search

AIRPORTS ARE BEING CHECKED

NEW YORK, March 31.—Under cover of absolute secrecy, forces appeared in restoring kidnapped Peter Levine to his parents appeared to be following up the first definite break in the case today.

Murray Levine, father of the missing boy, was reported "not at home" Department of Justice agents had left New Rochelle, the kidnap scene, on mystery errands. And both developments followed a strange message broadcast to "B 23 L" from a New York radio station last night.

"We are ready to follow your instructions B 23 L but we have to proceed by automobile because of weather conditions," was the special announcement suddenly projected into a commercial program.

Officials silent

It looked for a time as though another break had come today—and a bad one—when police found a blotted body out of upper New York Bay near a Brooklyn pier. But the body, thought at first to be that of a youth, was found later to be that of an undersized adult.

Meanwhile there was only official silence and public speculation as to the message to "B 23 L." It seemed that it concerned the Levine case especially in view of the renewed activity which followed.

It also appeared that contact was to be made with "B 23 L" at some far distant point to which planes were to have been used.

The weather was checked with airports and it was learned that planes had been grounded at all local fields because of the weather conditions.

Messages Prohibited

Regulations of the Federal Radio Commission prohibit broadcasting of messages to individuals. One of the strictest rules, it is waived only in cases of absolute emergency and never without consent of the commission. Because of that, the suspicion was strong that the message must have been intended for the Levine kidnapers and arrangements for its transmission probably made through the Department of Justice.

At his home, Murray Levine, father of the missing boy, who was scheduled to make another appeal to the kidnapers over the same station tonight, insisted that he knew nothing of the significance of the broadcast to "B 23 L."

"This is the first I have heard of it. It must be in connection with something else," he said.

RESTAURANT CLOSED AFTER 169 YEARS IN CONTINUOUS SERVICE

PARIS.—The Restaurant Foyot, whose cuisine for 169 years has been described as "an ornament to French civilization" and which probably served its famed dishes and great wines to as many crowned heads, political, industrial, social and theatrical celebrities as any restaurant in the world, is no more.

Condemned to permit the widening of the Rue de Tournon, just opposite the Senate, Foyot will not reopen. It has passed with those other great restaurants of the golden age of dining and dining. Very Foyot, Voisin, Cafe Riche, Cafe Anglaise, Tortoni, Procope and many others.

Though a great restaurant passes into the sad memory of gourmets, however, its name of finest wines and liquors remains and must be disposed of. This solemn rite has just been performed at public auction—by an auctioneer who informed the bidders that he drank only tea!

Foyot's reserves brought: $20,000, francs or about $27,000, not considered a high sum for such a cellar. Most of the buyers represented famous restaurants, which survive, or large hotels. There were few buyers.

Log Cabin Built By Daniel Boone Is Discovered

(International News Service)

LEXINGTON, Ky.—A log cabin built by Daniel Boone 143 years ago has been discovered on Brushy Fork in Nicholas county, Ky., providing the lost link in history concerning the pioneer.

Mrs. Charles F. Norton, librarian at Transylvania college, uncovered records showing the cabin is the only one left in Kentucky which Daniel Boone built with his own hands.

The discovery shows the pioneer lived in the state in 1793-6-7, while all previous records were vague about his residence during the period between 1788 when he left Kentucky to locate in Kanawha county, Virginia, now West Virginia, and his departure in 1799 for Missouri.

The cabin, a ramshackle affair but well preserved considering the age, is located on property now owned by Frank P. McEwen of Cleveland, and was to have been torn down to make room for a feed and tobacco barn.

Earle Aids Blinded Baby

Gov. George H. Earle, of Pennsylvania, is pictured with Mrs. Irene Lavery and her two-year-old son, Roger, at the Lavery home in North Wales, Pa., where he had gone to offer his aid. The boy has lost the sight of one eye and is losing the other. The mother had offered the cornea of her own eye for transplantation, but her offer was rejected by New York surgeons, who held the child's case hopeless. Earle urged Mrs. Lavery to take her son to the University of Pennsylvania Hospital at Philadelphia to have the blinded eye removed before it destroys the sight of the other.

Dead Plumber To Be Famed As Poet, Artist And Author

BOSTON, March 14.—The fame when he was studying art in France of a poet, artist and author, which about thirty years ago, were best in the heart of an 80-year-old brought to light. These pictures, though well painted, indicate Poole to have been a sensitive artist.

Fred W. Poole—who died in the City hospital, a few weeks ago—was a plumber, and there was plenty of evidence of his trade in the dingy apartment he occupied on the top floor of a South End tenement.

Amidst pieces of iron pipe, solder, although obviously autobiographical, det. tools, a vase and work bench. Other boxes contained short stories, about 100 canvases—dust-covered many based on life in congested landscapes—which Poole painted. Others contained poems and at down.

which reflect the thought and musings of such a recluse.

Bundles of verses he had printed and copyrighted, were all set to music. Among them were such titles as "Queen of the Restaurant," "When Dreams Are True," "Humiliated" and "Rambling Town in China-town."

Was Most Profitable

While their literary and artistic value have yet to be appraised, they do indicate the aged man, who earned a precarious living doing odd plumbing jobs in the district, was most profitable as a writer and a painter.

Teacher Relates 'Freak' Tornado

No One Badly Hurt As Wind Takes School From Foundation Into Air

Editor's Note—Mrs. Elizabeth Peacock, a country school teacher, lived through yesterday's tornado to tell one of the strangest stories ever related by a victim of the freak storms. Her account of five minutes in the grip of the raging wind follows.

By MRS. ELIZABETH PEACOCK
As Told To International News Service

MT. STERLING, Ill., March 31.—It doesn't seem real yet, I can hardly believe we are all alive. I was with my twelve pupils in the little one-room school house six miles southwest of here when the tornado struck yesterday afternoon. One instant it was day. The next it was night. The wind began to screech and the children to whimper with fear before I could get the lights on.

Lifted Into Air
I never had a chance to. Rain beat against the walls with a chattering noise like pebbles but the sound was drowned out almost as quickly as though by the roaring rush of the wind.

The walls began shaking and I told the children to lie on the floor. Everything was happening too fast for me to be greatly frightened.

And then the whole building lifted right into the air.

The roof tore off and the walls splintered. The roaring was all around us. An instant later we fell back with a terrific jolt. I pulled myself from the pile of debris. We were nearly 1000 feet from the foundation of the school. I was terribly shaken, bruised and cut. I found out later, but I didn't realize anything then.

The first thing I thought of was the children. Broken desks, chairs, the blackboards and other stuff was all around me.

Carried Quarter Mile
The children started popping up out of the wreckage and from the field as far as 1,000 feet away. It seemed incredible they had lived. But it was a miracle that none were badly hurt.

We started counting noses and I could only account for eleven. I tried counting again, but there still was one missing. It was little Norland Hatch, 11 years old.

We searched everywhere but he couldn't be found.

By a freak he had been carried nearly a quarter of a mile and dropped on the ground almost without harm. Just a stone's throw from where his own home had been. It was scattered over eighty acres, but his mother and three other children were safe in the cellar.

New Permit To Be Issued For Taylor Building In Grove Street

Council met in the city building today and upon recommendation of City Engineer Glen R. Throop, agreed to issue a new permit for the construction of a building owned by the Taylor estate in Grove street.

According to Throop the state has already approved preliminary plans submitted by Thayer company, architects.

As soon as all defective portions of the building are removed the city will grant the permit, council decided today.

The building will be used for an athletic auditorium.

Miss Sarah Boyles
Resigns City Job

When council met in the city building today they accepted the resignation of Miss Sarah Boyles as chief clerk in the legal department. The resignation became effective today.

Miss Boyles has been a very efficient employee of the city for eight years and in accepting the resignation today council, through Finance Director James L. Plink expressed regret at her departure and thanked her for her service.

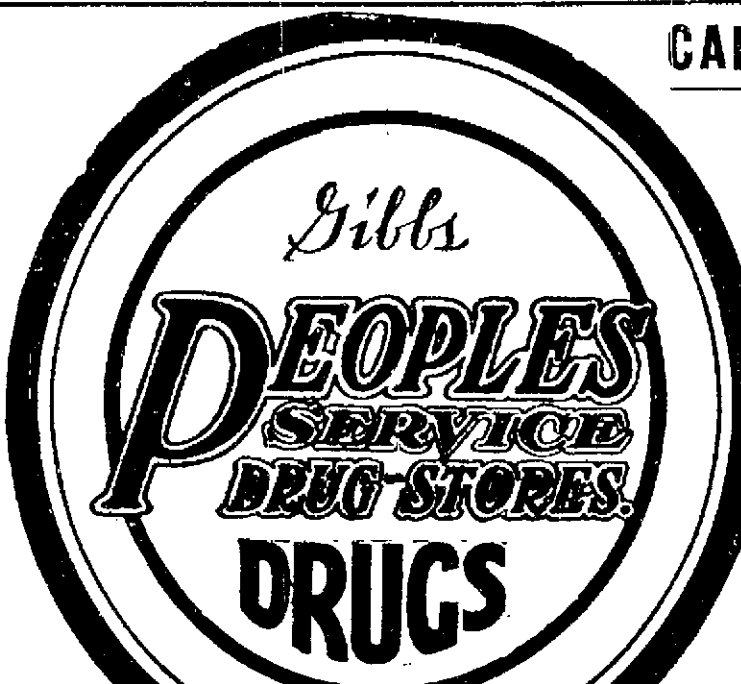

She will be succeeded April 1 by Miss Mary Maher who has been an assistant clerk. Miss Nova Burke was employed, beginning tomorrow, in Miss Maher's place.

Asks Change In City Zoning Law

Attorney Frank Hoyer today appeared before council which met at the city building and presented a petition in which the Lehigh Portland Cement Company and W. T. Boyd asked the city to change from a B residential to a secondary business district, five lots in the vicinity of Butler avenue and Adams street. Mr. Boyd desires to erect a new dairy at that point. It was stated. The petition was sent to committee for consideration.

Camera Club Hears Of Yellowstone Park

Motion pictures of Mexico, Yellowstone National Park, and Alaska, shown and described by A. L. Thayer, were the main features of the regular meeting of the members of the New Castle Camera club, on Wednesday evening, at their Croton avenue headquarters. Three reels of both plain and colored film were shown, including series of Mexico City, Old Faithful geyser, in Yellowstone Park, glaciers in Alaska, and many other interesting places and things. Mr. Thayer, an amateur photographer who took the pictures, explained them as the reels unrolled.

Camera Club Hears Of Yellowstone Park

At a short business meeting preceding the program, Russell Warner and Robert Meermans were accepted as new members of the club. President Charles Randall announced three prominent New Castle citizens are being asked to act as judges for the salon exhibition to be held during the week of May 9. It will be the duties of these judges to determine which pictures are to be hung in the salon. There will be a public vote on the salon prizes, as well as the awards made by the judges.

War Is Voted Pet Peeve In Student Poll

(International News Service)
LOS ANGELES—The six things most disliked by 500 students at the University of California at Los Angeles are:

1. War
2. Personal antipathy
3. Drunkenness
4. Hatred of one or more parents
5. Dictatorships
6. Unions or the capitalistic system

This was revealed by Dr. Frank C. Davis, assistant professor of psychology, who conducted an investigation at the university in an attempt to determine what brings about hatred.

In giving their reasons for disliking war, the students almost without exception, gave as their reason the injury or death of a personal friend or relative and some went so far back as to cite the Civil War in giving their reasons.

Jealousy Also Named
In regard to the personal antagonism, jealousy between women over a man was found to be most common, Dr. Davis said.

Co-eds declared, many times, that their best friends had "put the skids" under their romances. Dr. Davis stated that women hate, intensely, other women who are insincere and stab them in the back, according to answers given him during the investigation.

One hatred that needs serious consideration, according to Dr. Davis, is hatred of one or more parents. Some of the reasons given was abandonment of the family by the father, or domineering mothers or fathers who block all desires of their children.

Drunkenness is also causing much worry among college students, who have no objection to moderate drinking, but are alarmed at excess drinking causing deaths and serious injuries.

Dictatorships Hit
Hampered movements, persecutions and discrimination are the reasons listed by the students for their hatred of dictatorships.

In cases where students objected to labor unions or capitalistic systems it was because some relative had received a "raw deal" from one side or the other, Dr. Davis said. Minor hatreds, Dr. Davis said, included dislikes for "frivolities," such as turnips and beets, examinations, slow drivers or reckless drivers.

Woman Gives Up Family And Career To Be Traveller

Leaves Husband And Child
And Starts To See
America

(International News Service)
READING, Pa.—She was happily married, had a child of seven, was a successful business woman, and held down a $100-a-week job.

But Mrs. Annette Wilcox Runyon, of New York, "wanted to be free." So she gave up her job, placed her son in a boarding school, sublet her apartment, bought herself a second hand car, kissed her husband goodbye, and started off—all by herself—to see America.

Stopping here to visit friends, she confessed, "I've always wanted to do this." When came a speech by President Roosevelt in which he advised American men and women to travel about the country in a second-hand car and visit Tom Jones—see America as it really existed.

It was all the incentive she needed, she said, that and a set of fortuitous circumstances, and off she went, with a grill, sleeping bag, mess kit, and other camping equipment. "In case I want to camp out," she said.

"Afraid? What could happen to me?" she asked. "I can always lock myself in the car, you know."

And this is why she did it. "I've lived in New York all my life, and I'm fed up with it," she said. "I want to get out and see other parts of the country, for myself, talk to people other than smug New Yorkers who read a book about the Sino-Japanese situation, and then discuss it with authority. And I want to be free to go and come as I choose instead of being tied down to a desk from 9 to 5 every day."

BOSTON, Mass.—C. R. Meany, radio operator of the fishing trawler Harvard, lost his jaunty looking seafaring cap overnight in a sudden gust of wind. Three months later the cap, not quite so jaunty looking, was brought up from the ninety fathom level with a net load of fish. The cap was still wearable.

American Boy's Dream Of Being President Gone

Chance Of Realizing This Ambition Very Remote Says English Author

(International News Service)
PITTSBURGH.—The American "dream" that every boy has a chance to become president has vanished, according to an English author and newspaperman in this country to write about the American national consciousness.

He is H. P. Smolka, a correspondent for the London Times, who came to Pittsburgh to study the growth of labor organizations in the steel industry.

"Englishmen have long regarded the American idea that every boy may become a millionaire as a fundamental concept of your country," he remarked. "But in my travels here I have observed that most Americans now believe such an idea far-fetched."

Smolka regarded the rapid growth of the C.I.O. as typical Americans. Recently Studied Russia

Not a stranger to extensive surveys he has recently returned from a three-months' trip through the Russian Arctic empire. On his trip he traveled 20,000 miles, visiting Russian vast project of industrialization, navigation and aviation north of the Arctic circle.

He brought back a story that was almost fantastic, but to back it up he brought back pictures.

Where formerly only wild animals thrived, in the Land of the White Death, north of the Arctic Circle in Siberia, 40,000 Russians now live. They harvest summer wheat in September, and grow larger violets and forget-me-nots, cabbages, and cauliflower than in America. In subterranean hot-houses strawberries are grown.

Contrasts Explained

After this extensive tour of Russia's northern ice-locked empire, Smolka expressed what he considered was the fundamental difference between Early American colonization and modern Russian planning.

"The exploration and settlement of America was hit-or-miss, individualistic," he said. "Your woodmen and miners looked out for themselves, and the devil take the hindmost. But this Arctic experiment is collectivist. Each participant has his particular job and it all fits into a pattern. The Russians went north as a group, taking with them scientists, doctors, club-organizers and so on, in order to set up a normal community."

Three Dictators, With Eyes on La West

Dictators come in for a bit of razzing as Columbia University prepares for its annual show. Dress rehearsal at New York's Hotel Astor included this scene, with husky Football Captain Johnny Bateman, garbed as Mae West, being "holed" by Will H. Neill as Hitler, Harry Schwartz as Stalin and Anthony Diniello as Mussolini. (Central Press)

When Neighbors Meet on the Highway

Seated disconsolate, and rumb with pain, is George Janissi, of Quincy, Mass., who suffered a badly cut head and had his right ear almost severed when his automobile collided with that of a neighbor, John Burgess, near their homes. Burgess was also injured. (Central Press)

TODAY'S PROGRAM AT MISSION ANNOUNCED

Oil Seizure Is Precedent

Expropriation Of Mexican Oil Lands May Become Awkward To Nation

ABSENTEEISM BEING FOUGHT

Central Press Washington Bureau, 602 Times-Herald Bldg.
By CHARLES F. STEWART
Central Press Columnist
WASHINGTON, March 31.—President Cardenas' expropriation of Mexico's foreign-owned oil properties (nearly half a billion dollars' worth) of them, and mainly at the expense of Yankee or English capitalists, sets an example which, if followed by other Latin-American countries, may lead to some very awkward international complications.

Presumably expropriated absenteeism will be indemnified, but it will be a miracle if they and the governments which expropriate properties ever agree on terms. A row on this issue is in the making over Mexican oil rights now.

The Latin new world is full of foreign ownerships of huge proportions.

Our southern neighbors have been and still are prodigiously rich in natural but undeveloped resources, but hopelessly poor in spot cash to realize on them.

They have been a temptation to foreign investors and such investments have been furiously fought for by new world governments. In fact, extravagant inducements have been offered to overseas plutocrats to lend a financial hand in the promotion of enterprise on this side of the Atlantic.

AROUND CITY HALL

Two hundred cases of communicable disease were reported to the city health bureau last month and up to yesterday approximately 250 cases were reported during March. The contagion last month was as follows: Measles, 75 cases; scarlet fever, 67 cases; mumps, 35 cases; chicken-pox, 21 cases; whooping cough, 3 cases, and one case of pneumonia was reported.

Figures for last month shows that Sanitary Policemen Chairman Davis had a busy month. He had to post quarantine signs at 200 places and had to make a second trip to a large number of the homes to remove the signs. He did not have much time to chase down tin-can and rubbish-hunters. He had 251 cases of contagion this month to take care of.

One thousand two hundred and four tons of garbage were collected, hauled away, dumped into the garbage furnace and burned during February, according to Ed. Umbright. In addition employees of the department collected 233 truck loads of tin cans and hauled them to dumps. With warm weather here an increase may be noted for March when the report is compiled.

Dr. William L. Steen, health officer, tested 22 samples of city water. 14 samples of water obtained from wells and springs and 12 samples of water taken from bathing pools last month. He inspected three milk pasteurizing plants, according to his report to council.

Mussolini Approves Bombing Civilians

(International News Service)
ROME, March 31.—Premier Mussolini in his speech before the senate Wednesday, gave official approval to bombardments of civilian populations.
"War from the air must be conducted in a manner designed to disrupt the plans of the enemy, dominate the skies, and crush the morale of the population," Il Duce said. Detailing the potentialities of the Italian air force, and improvements in bombardment methods, he added: "War from the skies is destined always to assume major importance in the war of tomorrow."

From the defensive standpoint, Mussolini recommended the rapid evacuation of residents of metropolitan areas.
"At this moment I say to all those who are able to shift their residence to minor cities, villages, or the country, they will do well not to await the zero hour."

First Baptists Are Tourney Winners By Score Of 40-23

Defeat Tifereth Israel Team In Finals Of House-Church League Tourney

CLYDE BREST AND ADAMS ARE STARS

The First Baptist church basketball team, champions of the class A division of the New Castle church league, annexed another title last night at the "Y" court when they defeated the Tifereth Israel team 40 to 23 in the finals of the House-Church League tourney.

Clyde Brest and George "Pop" Adams were the big guns for the champions, getting 21 of the points between them. Reebie and Fraser also played fine basketball and contributed to the point-making. The Baptists started out fast and had a lead of 20 to 10 as the first half drew to a close.

Rebelle and Adams did the bulk of the scoring for the Baptists in the first half, with three buckets apiece. For the Israelis the work of "Tee" Solomon and Eph Solomon was the best.

Baptists Steady. In the final half the Baptists again made 20 points and held the losers to 13 points. Clyde Brest with three double-doubles paced the Baptists in the second half, adding very nicely by Fraser, Bobby Brest and Adams, with two field goals apiece. Baltimore was best for the losers in the second half.

In foul shooting the Baptists made 2 out of 3. The Tifereth Israelis made 7 out of 12.

The final game drew a large crowd to the "Y" court.

Boxing Bouts At Jefferson Smoker

Amateur Boxers From Ellwood City And New Castle Perform

Boxing bouts imbued with the hope of some day going places in the boxing game, furnished considerable action in five training bouts at the Jefferson A. C. smoker last night. Tommy Leach, an official of the club, was in charge of the affair and it was successful. Because of the bouts being training affairs no decisions were given.

The boys were from Ellwood City and New Castle, and Leach had the co-operation of managers of amateur fighters, Merrill Book of Ellwood City brought some of his scrappers here. Bob Laterni, undefeated one of his boys, Jimmie Dime's Mickie Rubin would have performed had there been someone to pair off with him.

The bouts were between Frankie Moran and Yonnie Cortez; Mike Rotorio and Armand Cavelli; Young Stanley Kuebell and Mike Tumas; Ike Jacobs and Mike Medwick; and Freddie Bartie and Mike Kraynak. Bob Laterni was the referee.

Lawrence League Session Tonight

Louis, Thomas End Training For Big Bout

Joe Louis Will Defend His Title Friday Night In Ring At Chicago

THOMAS IS HELD AS GOOD PUNCHER

By CHESTER YOUNG

CHICAGO, March 31.—Heavyweight fight Champion Joe Louis' sparring partners breathed easier today as Joe slackened workouts for his defense of his title tomorrow night against Henry Thomas.

The Brown Bomber's cannon fodder has been rather rough going the last few days as Louis flashed into top form in strenuous practice bouts. He is declared near his peak for the stadium clash, in which the challenger rates at best, only a chance of showing himself a good loser.

Thomas Can Punch

Thomas also held his final workout prior to the bout. Harry hopes the champion will leave a sufficient exposure of his anatomy unguarded so that he can land his right before the birdies sing. "There is only one fly in the ointment of this well conceived plan, and that is that Harry's own open style of fighting makes him as hard to miss as a boulevard signboard."

What Louis is likely to be doing while Harry seeks the all-important opening is a question upon which virtually all fans concur. The challenger, however, is not rated hopeful. He has hit hard during workouts, and his courage is undented.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

Colonel Matt J. Winn is believed to be the only man who has witnessed every running of the Kentucky Derby, but should there be others they should communicate with the patriarch of the living hoof sport. The first running was in 1875. In a talk with Frank Menke, sports writer recently, Winn said he wonders if anyone else is alive with a record that can equal his. The colonel said that there was a lady in Louisville who had seen every running of the Derby up to the time of her death several years ago. Victory in the May 7 event should be worth more than $50,000 to the owner of the fortunate horse. The Churchill Downs management has put up a $50,000 purse, of which $5,000 goes to the second horse, $3,000 to the third, and $1,000 to the fourth. This will leave $40,000 of the purse for the winner to which will be added the remaining fees and the starting fee. There were 103 nominations at $25.00 each, meaning that $2,575 will be added to the winner's share bringing it up to $42,575. It costs $500 to start a horse in the Derby. If there are 20 starters, that means $10,000 or a grand total of $52,575 for the winner.

Speaking of fighters and some of the punishment they suffer in returning value for money expended by fans, one recalls the time when George Chip's tongue was cut severely during a training bout in California. A surgeon sewed the wound without Chip taking an anesthetic. Tom McMahon had a flock of boils the night he fought Sailor Grande. Battling Terry was down five times in one round in a fight with Willie Gradwell and had the Newark boy bicycling in the last round. Tommy Jones had a bad ear when he fought Jimmy Duffy of Lockport. Johnny Fletcher had three ribs broken in his fight with Steve Latzo. Frankie Ross and Paris Gangle staged a knock-down, drag-out affair. There were 13 knockdowns and three or four knockouts in one show at the Bowl. Joe Chip had several bones in his chest broken when he fought Al McCoy. Jackie Wilson had the "fun" of his ear knocked off by Ross Fields.

Check up another knockout for homicide Henry Armstrong. He stopped Lew Feldman in the fifth round in New York City last night. According to reports, Armstrong's showing was not any too good. However, the fact remains he brought down his adversary. It was Armstrong's last fight until he battles Welterweight Champion Barney Ross at New York, May 26.

Billy Soose, the former amateur of Farrell and Penn State, hammered out an easy win Tuesday night at Los Angeles. He defeated Jimmie Brent of Spokane in a four-round bout. It was Soose's second appearance in a Pacific coast ring. His first resulted in a knockout over Johnny Dean of New Castle, who is in the U. S. marines and who is stationed at San Diego.

Showing of Featherweight Champion Henry Armstrong in five-round knockout over Lew Feldman at New York led to belief he would find it tough going against Barney Ross and Lou Ambers.

Suckers Are Blin'

Days of late winter and early spring no longer are classified as useless in our fishing calendar. Though snootier sportsmen may be inclined to grin, we admit unblushingly that our first victim of the current season was a rather slow-witted black sucker.

But should we thus despise him? Didn't he weigh a good two pounds, and didn't he wiggle once or twice as we "bossed" him through the murky tide?

Wasn't it grand to be down there alone the river, sinking ankle-deep in scudding sand and basking in the glory of a returning sun?

We like to use an old fly rod, with two or three hooks on streamers and a two-ounce shaker at the end. Baiting with a job of small red worms we cast below an eddy and let the line run slack, as suckers feed along the bottom.

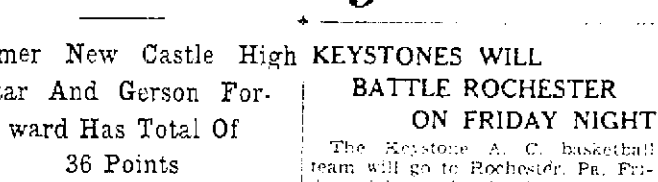

Then, if luck is good, the line grows taut before the first pipet is gone. Taking care not to play the fish too much (because suckers have extremely soft mouths), we reel him in and observe with professional disdain: "Bass will soon be running!"

Today's Tip

Smallmouth bass usually are found in deep water during early spring. When they are chasing minnows to the shore, the fly and spinner are most effective.

Carik Leading Tourney Scorer

Former New Castle High Star And Gerson Forward Has Total Of 36 Points

Blackie Nocera In Second Place With 33, Records Of 35 Leading Scorers Given

Johnny Carik, star forward of the championship Gerson basketball team, city-county title holder, was the leading scorer in the City-County tourney that has just finished. Carik got a total of 36 points in four games. In second place was Victor "Blackie" Nocera, with 33 points.

Four out of the first 14 high scorers were members of the Gerson team. Five out of the 15 were members of the Epworth M. E. team. The Keystone A. C. placed two men in the select first 15 high scorers.

Strausbaugh Good At Fouls

Nocera and Carik were both tied in the number of field goals, but Carik in one more game than Nocera made three more fouls. The highest number of fouls in the tourney were made by Eddie "Big" Strausbaugh who had 11 out of 15 for the four games for a very enigmatic record. The next best foul shooter in the tourney was Elmer Wainio with 9 out of 15 tries.

Only two men in the first 35 high scorers didn't catch a foul and that was "Timmy" Hutchinson and Harry Toscano.

KEYSTONES WILL BATTLE ROCHESTER ON FRIDAY NIGHT

The Keystone A. C. basketball team will go to Rochester, Pa., Friday night to battle the Rochester Barpetts at the Rochester high floor for the first-half championship in the Beaver valley semi-pro league. The key players are asked by Coach Venduto to report at 6 o'clock at the club rooms Friday.

The Keys still have a chance to take the Beaver Valley league, but if they win Friday night, will have to play the Rochester a series of games for the title, as the Rochester team won the second half of the league season. Coach Venduto hopes to have Kelley and Morrison in the lineup to try and take the measure of the valentines.

Falcons-Keys Play Tonight

Second Game Of Current Series Will Be Played At Falcon Hall Tonight

The second game of the current series between the Polish Falcons and the Keystone A. C. will be played tonight at the Falcon hall under the tourney. The game will be preceded by a preliminary game at 7:30 o'clock.

Coach Henry Koszela will use his strongest line-up to try and wind up the series this evening. The Falcons won the first game by a close score. Coach Andy "Coots" Venduto will have all of his star performers back in the line-up, including Joe Kelly, Paul Morrison, Bullock, Gennock, Adams, Hutchinson, Zingaro and Gallagher.

Henry Armstrong Kayoes Feldman

Featherweight Champion Does Not Look Impressive In Victory Over Feldman

ARMSTRONG WILL NEXT MEET ROSS

By PAT ROBINSON

NEW YORK, March 31.—Henry Armstrong, the world's sweetest cure for insomnia, says he believes Barney Ross, the welterweight boxer, will be a better touch for him than Lou Ambers, head man among the lightweights.

But after watching Henry box a Lew Feldman to sleep in five rounds last night, I got the impression that Henry will find neither Barney nor Lou very soft.

There were times when Feldman, one of the veterans known to the trade as a covey, made Armstrong look like a novice.

Feldman bounded left hooks off Armstrong's chin with abandon and if he had had enough punch to dislodge a fly off his own bald head, he might have made matters very interesting indeed for the featherweight champion.

Missed Many Punches. Armstrong missed scores of punches, some of them by three feet, against the fast-moving Feldman, but when he did connect, the connection did Feldman no good.

This was particularly true when Lew was knocked through the ropes for a nine count in the first, for nine more via a left hook in the fourth and for the final ten via the same destructive route in the fifth. After watching Armstrong against the punches, clever Feldman, the punch-wise were asked: "What will happen to him when he meets Ross who is bigger than Feldman, a better boxer and a thousand times better hitter?"

Hoyt Explains His Article On Big League Ball

Former Yankee, Pirate And Dodger Heaver Offers
Explanation To Ford
Frick

By DAVIS J. WASH
International News Service Sports
Editor

NEW YORK, March 31.—It seems that quite a number have been raised around here by the strange behavior of Walter Hoyt in writing a magazine article today in which he thought the American League was superior to the National, the organization from which he currently draws his wages in fact, the attitude was so marked that it is now understood that Walter Hoyt has offered President Ford G. Frick something of an "explanation."

By the way, Hoyt is believed to have said that he thought Frick was a "really active participant" with the close of last season, and that therefore he debauched into that field of rhetoric, first, because it would help his daily radio blather, and second, because probably Jimmie needed a winter refuel. He didn't confide whether he really meant what the article made him say.

Pitchers Collapse
However, I am not so sure that an "explanation" isn't due to a lot of us, particularly the pitcher Hoyt who was a member of the New York Yankees of 1921 and 1922, a club that looked so plump, ridiculous against the Giants that the Yankees' Colonels, Euphoric and Hinson, became permanently embarrassed over it. Even in 1922, the Giants played pranks at the Yankees' expense and only lost the series because, quite suddenly, their pitching collapsed.

I might add that nobody was more surprised and, in fact, bewildered by this swift turn than were the Yankees.

And I not only might but must add that I'm not setting out to make a case for the National League which trailing in world's championships by a count of 21 to 13, most certainly is not doing as well as might be expected. But the power clubs of the Yankees in 1927, 1928, 1929, 1930 and 1931 has made up an awful lot of the current difference.

Cards Should Win
The rest, frankly, as it applies to the present, is almost entirely accounted for by the fact that the wrong club, meaning the essentially weaker one, has won in the National League for the last three years. The right club would have been the St. Louis Cardinals, who have won the last three years. If you could get them out of the league and away from the venerable but everything has happened to them except an epidemic of dandruff.

The 1934 Cards—who is life expectancy should be still rolling along today—made the slugging hitters look a little pitiful and if the Cardinals and the rest of those rosters were still available, they'd be the club with which to confront the Yankees, possibly with success. For good pitching will hamper, if not actually deter, good slugging. I say, in fact, that the National League has been unfortunate in both its critics and its recent champions.

TALES IN TIDBITS

By BILL BRAUCHER
Central Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, March 31.—In honor of the occasion of Man O'War's 21st birthday March 29, Browne Leach of the Blood-Horse, turf periodical, published in Lexington, sends along impressive statistics on Big Red, whose sons and daughters have won $2,406,396.

The old son of Fair Play and Mahubah has had 14 crops of foals to reach racing age, producing at the rate of about 18 foals per year. His total number of registered sons and daughters was 258, including two which died as yearlings. Of that number, 192 had started 5,318 times in North America, won 845 races, finished second 730 times, third 947 times and unplaced 3,095 times. The total earnings is a record for living sires. The winners include 50 stakes winners, not including Nemi which raced in England and was a stakes winner, earning more than $35,000.

Breaking the figures down into averages, the average number of races for each of the starters is 27.69, and the average amount won by each of the registered foals is $9,329.40. The average earnings of the 192 starters is $12,536.38. Slightly more than 19 per cent of all of Man O'War's foals have been stakes winners. Of the total number of his foals, 74.41 per cent have started, and 53.1 per cent have won.

Man O'War's best son was Crusader, foaled in 1923, and winner of $203,261, first in 18 races out of 42 starts. Next comes War Admiral, winner of 11 races out of 14 starts and $161,300. War Admiral is threatening to surpass the fine earnings of the Crusader and take his place at the head of the list. Mars was third with earnings of $128,786, Clyde Van Dusen fourth with $122,452, and Bateau fifth with $120,760. One other horse approached the $100,000 mark—Scapa Flow, winner of $93,955.

Men O'War has had two Kentucky Derby winners, Clyde Van Dusen in 1929, and War Admiral last year. He now wears the unique distinction also of having a son win the Grand National, the 11-year-old Battleshup turning the trick this year.

Some Horse Talk.
Hal Price Heady says Menow hasn't recovered entirely from the leg ailment he suffered last fall after winning the Futurity. The colt is quoted in the backs at 15 to 1.

Horses usually are given names in which the names of their sires are suggested but Menow was named in honor of a family custom. Mr. Heady kissed his children upon arrival home. One of the daughters, waiting for her turn would say "Me now, daddy." Stagehand is quoted for the Derby at somewhat quaint odds of 4 to 1, and finding very little backing, according to the commission. Stagehand's owner, Col. Maxwell Howard, will go to Kentucky to see how Stagehand runs in the Derby May 6. He will move from Miami Beach to Louisville. Other members of the family will travel from Dayton, O., to Louisville in three private cars, the trip to be made via Chicago where other members of the family will be picked up.

Some trainers still think Stagehand is not Colonel Howard's best horse. . . insisting that The Chief can spot Stagehand pointers and beat him to the wire. . . it would be okay with Colonel Howard, I suppose, if The Chief should run away from the Santa Anita winner and knock off the Derby.

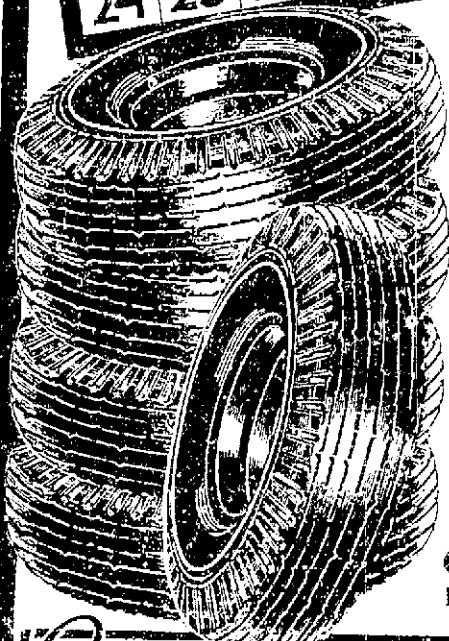

ROSS A. C. TO HAVE MEETING
The Ross A. C. will have "Rags" Gennock at the managerial helm again this year. It was announced, and Gennock wants the boys to meet for their first practice session at Rosens field Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. The team will be strengthened by new material this year, with such stars as Tom Paron, B. Ross, Perittia, Jannone, Bill Hultford, Campbell and S. Ross. All of the last year's men are also available.

The team will be newly uniformed this year and will open the season on June 10th. Practice games will be played with the Roussos, Millers and Rangers. It was announced by Manager Gennock.

Prolific Deer Herds Problem In Connecticut

HARTFORD, Conn.—The prolific herds of deer in Connecticut are becoming quite a problem.

Although the state has no open season on deer, 349 of the animals were killed last year, according to the state board of fisheries and game.

Eighty-six deer were killed in collisions with automobiles; 21 died in other accidents; five were struck by railroad trains; 19 succumbed to attacks by dogs; 26 deer were found injured and killed, and the same number were found dead from unknown causes; and 39 were killed by the state's deer hunters or trappers.

Farmers Sheat 127
Rural landowners, however, are counted for the largest number, according to the board. Farmers reported shooting a total of 174 deer on their lands to "protect their property."

There is a law in the state which permits the killing of deer if they are found on a farm.

LIFE GUARD

All America is demanding greater highway safety. Goodyear's answer is a radically different kind of tire designed to meet 1938 driving conditions. This modern tire is no longer merely a casing and a tube. It is, instead, a casing and a Goodyear Life Guard — the only infallible protection against the peril of blowouts! It completes the safety of your car — finishes the job begun by four-wheel brakes, safety glass and all-steel bodies. Life Guard's original cost is somewhat higher. But no other tire equipment can save you so much!
